TED MOUDIS ASSOCIATES COMPLETES JPMORGAN CHASE CHALLENGE

New York, NY – Ted Moudis Associates (TMA) recently participated in the annual 2010 JPMorgan Chase Corporate Challenge. The main goal of this event is to get companies involved in raising money for local not-for-profit organizations. The event takes place in 12 cities located in 6 countries worldwide, which benefits organizations in the runners' own local communities. This year the not-for-profit organizations were specifically chosen for their involvement in the Green Movement. Runners were challenged on a 5K run as part of the fundraiser.

TMA enjoys participating in the JPMorgan Chase Corporate Challenge each year. Several companies donate their time and resources to contribute to the success of the event. This year there were 15,000 runners in Central Park, over a two day span, participating in the challenge. The objective of the event is to help enhance environmental awareness as well as build stronger team relationships. The event led to the salvation of 6 tons of paper as well as 10 tons of glass and plastic. "I always look forward to participating in this event with my colleagues," says Janey Scaturro, a staff member of TMA. "We always have a great time and the challenge supports a wonderful cause."
