TED MOUDIS ASSOCIATES SUCCESSFUL AT 2010 SAVE A SAMPLE!

New York, NY – Nicole Moudis, Ted Moudis Associates' (TMA) Resource Manager has been awarded "Top Boxer" for a second time, recognizing her outstanding effort to donate towards scholarships for design students. 2010 Save A Sample! is an organization created as an outreach program for design students in need of financial aid. Every year the organization distinguishes who among the design industry can box/save the most samples so that these samples can be given to design schools to be used by prospective up - and - coming design students.

Nicole Moudis, during her second year of participation with the Save A Sample! organization has boxed and saved the largest amount of samples and raised the most money for the 2010 Save A Sample! organization. After winning 3rd place in 2009 this accomplishment of 1st place this year is indeed a distinguished effort. TMA's efforts were sponsored by AFD Contract Furniture, Benjamin Moore, DFB Sales/The Atlantic Group, Empire Office, and Teknion. For 2010, the organization was able to raise over $9,000 in scholarship dollars. It also saved 680 boxes of samples in three cities. The schools who accepted the scholarship influence were Art Institute of NY, FIT, Kean University, New York Institute of Technology, Pratt, and School of Visual Arts.

Ted Moudis Associates is a leading Architectural and Interior Design firm with offices in New York, Chicago and an alliance in London.
