TMA PROJECT WINS STARNET AWARD FOR CONSOLIDATED CARPETING

New York, NY – Ted Moudis Associates (TMA), along with Consolidated Carpet, recently won the 2010 Starnet Design Award for a Large Corporate Space, for their work on Coty’s Headquarters in New York City. Starnet Worldwide is a commercial flooring partnership that includes more than 170 flooring contractors in North America and the United Kingdom. “We are extremely proud of our work on Coty with Consolidated carpet,” said Ted Moudis, the firm’s founder and Senior Principal.

Jacqueline Barr, Senior Associate and Luis Valcarcel, Design Manager for TMA sought to break up the vast circulation path within the Coty space by incorporating different carpet color accents in an angled direction to the main circulation addressing both design and functionality. The overall design was a very successful solution for the client and created visual interest as well.

Ted Moudis Associates is a leading Architectural and Interior Design firm with offices in New York, Chicago and an alliance in London. TMA designs innovative, sustainable design solutions and is recognized for delivering exceptional value to its dynamic corporate and retail clientele domestically and internationally. TMA is recognized as one of the top 10 architectural design firms in New York and is ranked as one of the top 50 Design Giants by Interior Design Magazine. Representative clients include Coty, Deutsche Bank, Morgan Stanley, Newsweek, Rolex, Societe Generale, and Tiffany & Co. to name a few. (www.tedmoudis.com).
