TED MOUDIS HONORED BY DIABETES RESEARCH INSTITUTE FOUNDATION

New York, NY- The Diabetes Research Institute Foundation (DRIF) – Real Estate Division, honored Ted Moudis, AIA, Founder and Senior Principal of Ted Moudis Associates with the Camillo Ricordi Humanitarian Award. Additional award recipients included Honoree Jody Durst of The Durst Organization and Distinguished Service Award recipient Richard Heller of Malkin Holdings, LLC. The awards were presented on December 6 at the annual Empire Ball at the Grand Hyatt Hotel.

The Camillo Ricordi Humanitarian Award, named after Dr. Camillo Ricordi of the Diabetes Research Institute, is given each year to a commendable honoree for their dedication and generosity towards the DRIF as well as other charities and causes. Ted Moudis became aware of the DRIF years ago by attending the Empire Ball. He then became more involved in the organization and its cause through sponsorship and charitable efforts. Ted was especially moved upon a recent visit to the Diabetes Research Institute and witnessing firsthand the amazing and progressive science and collaborative efforts being performed there to cure Diabetes, saying, “You have to see it to believe it.” Ted says he is, “Extremely honored to be this year’s Camillo Ricordi Humanitarian Award recipient. The DRI does amazing work and I am proud to support such a worthy cause and organization.”

Ted is involved with numerous charities and foundations including The Ganley Foundation, the Muscular Dystrophy Association, the Eric F. Haray Foundation, and Special Olympics. Ted also serves on the Board of Directors of the Friends of St. Dominic’s Home. Ted is also a member of the American Institute of Architects (AIA), CoreNet Global New York, Association of Real Estate Women (AREW), the International Facilities Management Association (IFMA) and serves on the boards of the New York Institute of Technology Advisory as well as Perspective New York Magazine.
